

Ondernemers voor Ondernemers - OVO

Local entrepreneurship is a driver for greater opportunity. Entrepreneurs for Entrepreneurs - OVO for short - strengthens sustainable entrepreneurship in Africa. And seeks Belgian entrepreneurs, companies and investors who support these projects with expertise and resources.

«Your commitment is our strength»

OVO wouldn't be OVO without its volunteers.

As a fast-growing organization, we're always on the lookout for inspired individuals to share their knowledge and experience.

- ➔ Would you like to coach an African entrepreneur by participating in one of our Boostcamps in Africa (Uganda, Rwanda, Senegal, or Benin)? It's an experience that will make a significant difference for the African entrepreneur, and it can be just as fascinating and enriching for you!
- ➔ Become a Business Coach and support African entrepreneurs in developing their businesses through online coaching? It's possible!
- ➔ If you'd prefer to contribute your time and expertise to our Team Matchmakers, that's great! We have a compelling story to share with businesses, and you can help us make contacts and build or maintain relationships.
- ➔ Do you enjoy event organization, communication, or administration? Then there's a place for you on our team.

What's so special about working with us?

- You're part of a network of over 90 volunteers from diverse backgrounds and professional fields.
- You can benefit from training courses, workshops, and conferences.
- You'll receive professional support from a small core of permanent staff and experts.
- You are part of a community committed to creating a fairer world.

Are you a student who enjoys multicultural exchanges?

Whether it's co-coaching, internships, dissertations, or other opportunities, we have something for you.
